

Gaylord Specialty Healthcare Appointments Vice President of Human Resources

WALLINGFORD, CT – Gaylord Hospital has recently appointed Walter (Wally) G. Harper as Vice President of Human Resources.

With nearly 30 years in the human resources industry, Mr. Harper brings experience in leadership and organizational development, employee relations and communications with him to Gaylord. Most recently, he held the position of Assistant Vice President, Human Resources for Rushford Center, Inc. a not-for-profit behavioral healthcare agency located in Meriden. Mr. Harper's earlier career included human resource management positions at United Natural Foods, Inc., DST Output, a subsidiary of DST Systems, Inc. and Pitney Bowes.

A resident of Glastonbury, Mr. Harper completed his undergraduate studies with a B.S. Degree in Education from Central Connecticut State University. He received an M.S. in Business Management from Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute.

Mr. Harper is a member of many professional organizations including the Society for Human Resource Management (SHRM), Human Resources Association of Central Connecticut (HRACC), and American Society for Healthcare Human Resources Administration (ASHHRA).

Gaylord Hospital is a not-for-profit, long-term acute care hospital based in Wallingford, CT. The hospital specializes in the care and treatment of people with complex medical and rehabilitation needs, outpatient services and sleep medicine. Visit www.gaylord.org or call (203) 284-2726 for more information.