Bristol Hospital Development Foundation Annual Golf Classic Raises More Than $100K

BRISTOL, Conn. — The 17th Annual Bristol Hospital Development Foundation Golf Classic—which took place June 11 at the Golf Club of Avon—raised $100,281.82 for Bristol Hospital. The funds will help purchase a second low radiation dose CT scanner for the hospital. Since it began, the Bristol Hospital Golf Classic has raised more than $1.3 million for the hospital and this year’s tournament featured 200 golfers.

In attendance at the tournament included (from left): Brian Dehm, Tracy-Driscoll Insurance and Financial Services and Bristol Hospital golf committee chairman; Rick Abbott, ESPN Inc; Eva Wickwire, assistant vice president and chief development officer of the Bristol Hospital Development Foundation, and Kurt Barwis, FACHE, president and CEO of Bristol Hospital and Health Care Group Inc.
