

For Immediate Release
December 14, 2012

Contact: Michele Sharp
Director of Communications and Public Affairs
(203) 294-7213
Sharp@chime.org

Connecticut Hospital Association Statement on Today's School Shooting

WALLINGFORD – Jennifer Jackson, President and CEO of the Connecticut Hospital Association, released the following statement on today's school shooting:

"The Connecticut Hospital Association is horrified by today's school shooting in Newtown, CT, and the magnitude of the tragedy. We support hospitals and first responders in this critical time as they work to save lives, care for victims, and assist the community in its time of need."

###

About CHA

The Connecticut Hospital Association has been dedicated to serving Connecticut's hospitals since 1919. Through state and federal advocacy, CHA represents the interests of Connecticut's hospitals on key healthcare issues in the areas of quality and patient safety, access and coverage, workforce, community health, diversity, and hospital reimbursement.