Breast Surgeon Dr. Sai Varanasi Joins The Bristol Hospital Multi-Specialty Group

BRISTOL, Conn. — Breast surgeon Sai Varanasi, MD, FACS, has joined the medical staff of the Bristol Hospital Multi-Specialty Group Inc, and Bristol Hospital’s new Beekley Center for Breast Health and Wellness.

Dr. Varanasi comes to Bristol Hospital from the Hudson Valley Medical Group in Hudson Valley, NY. Dr. Varanasi completed her fellowship in surgical oncology at the University of Pittsburgh Medical Center and she completed her surgical residency at the State University of New York Health Science Center in Brooklyn, NY. She also is a Fellow of the American College of Surgeons. Dr. Varanasi’s areas of special interest include high risk groups of breast diseases as well as genetic testing for breast disease. She also specializes in numerous surgical procedures including the nipple sparing mastectomy.

The new Beekley Center for Breast Health and Wellness—which is scheduled to open this fall—is a 6,100-square-foot center that will offer patients comprehensive breast care and wellness in a spa-like setting.

Dr. Varanasi is accepting new patients and can be reached at 860.585.1560.
