Dear Dr. Ellner,

It is our pleasure to inform you that you are the inaugural winner of the Roger Schenke Award from the American Association for Physician Leadership®.

Our judges were impressed with the scope and breadth of your training program to reduce perioperative error and improve health outcomes. The medical community statewide benefits from the education instituted through the Connecticut Surgical Quality Collaborative, and you should take pride in its accomplishment.

As our winner, you are invited to the 2015 Annual Meeting at The Venetian in Las Vegas on April 18th where you will be presented with the Schenke award. More information will follow and please feel free to contact me with any questions.

Congratulations, again, from all of us at the association.

Regards,

Dawn McKnight
