Hospital for Special Care Appoints
New Chairman of its Board of Directors

NEW BRITAIN, Conn. (Aug. 01, 2013) – Center of Special Care, Inc. (CSC), parent company of Hospital for Special Care and its affiliated operating entities, recently announced that it has appointed David J. Kelly, Senior Manager, Finance, ESPN, Inc. as Chairman of its Board of Directors. Kelly was officially named Chairman at CSC’s 16th Annual Meeting of Corporators and Donor Appreciation Reception.

As Chairman, Kelly will preside at all meetings of the board and is responsible for the overall governance and management affairs of Center of Special Care, Inc. Kelly also will ensure that Hospital for Special Care and affiliates of Center of Special Care, Inc. continue to stay true to its mission by anticipating and being responsive to the changing needs of its communities and a changing healthcare environment by creating an innovative, fiscally-sound, cost-effective system of care.

“David has been an incredibly dedicated board member for the past eight years. He has served in a variety of leadership roles and has helped to bring our diverse board members together to proactively address the hospital’s position in this changing healthcare environment,” said Dr. John Votto, president and CEO, Hospital for Special Care.

In his current role at ESPN, Kelly is responsible for Affiliate revenue as well as expense budgeting and forecasting models. He also delivers financial analysis in support of Affiliate deals and negotiations as well as consolidated analysis and detail explanation of financial variances. In addition, Kelly monitors and reviews Affiliate Sales & Marketing Incentive Plans, providing recommendations on goals and achievement.

Over the years, Kelly has been active within the Connecticut community and mentors at the E.P. Hubbell Elementary School in Bristol. He is also Board Director of the Connecticut Youth Leadership Project, a youth program that empowers youth living with disabilities to realize their leadership potential. Kelly resides in Bristol with his wife, Paula.
