JOHNSON MEMORIAL HOSPITAL APPOINTS DAVID MOL EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR OF HOME AND COMMUNITY HEALTH SERVICES, INC.

(Stafford Springs, Conn - May 2, 2016) - David Mol has been appointed Executive Director of Home and Community Health Services, Inc., a home health care service provider of Johnson Memorial Hospital.

Mol, a resident of Windsor, Connecticut, comes to Home and Community Health Services (HCHS) after most recently serving as president and chief executive officer of Noble Visiting Nurse and Hospice Services, Inc., in Westfield, Massachusetts. He was also previously vice president of finance at Visiting Nurse Association and Hospice of Western NE, Inc., in Springfield, Massachusetts.

"David's extensive health care administration background demonstrates a reputation for strong leadership and a commitment to the hospice and home health industry," stated Stuart E. Rosenberg, president, Johnson Memorial Hospital. "He will ensure that HCHS continues its Mission to provide care that maximizes the health, independence and quality of life enjoyed by our residents."

HCHS is licensed by both the states of Connecticut and Massachusetts. The agency was selected as one of the 2008 HomeCare Elite, the inaugural compilation of the most successful home care providers in the country.

Home health care services are appropriate for those coping with chronic illness, those recently hospitalized due to illness, and those who require additional help to live safely at home. Whatever the need, HCHS' skilled team of professionals delivers only the highest quality care, while also ensuring that patients and their families are treated with the utmost compassion, understanding and respect.
