Pat McCabe named 2014 CFO of the Year
Bridgeport Hospital CFO takes honor in Large Business category

October 3, 2014 (Bridgeport, CT) – Pat McCabe, senior vice president/chief financial officer for Bridgeport Hospital and senior vice president, Yale New Haven Health System, has been named 2014 CFO of the Year (large business category) by the Fairfield County Business Journal. Awards were determined by a distinguished panel of business leaders, including Peter M. Gioia, vice president and economist, Connecticut Business and Industry Assn. (CBIA), who presented the award to McCabe.

McCabe joined Bridgeport Hospital as the senior vice president (SVP) of Finance and CFO in 2001. He has worked with Bridgeport Hospital’s senior administrators to produce 14 consecutive years of positive operating results. In 2012 McCabe led the Hospital through a formal ratings review process with both Moody’s and Fitch and the Hospital received ratings in the A category. He has been a strategic leader and participated in the growth in clinical programs and the major renovations at the Hospital.

McCabe has recently taken a leadership role across the entire Yale New Haven Health System as the SVP of Finance responsible for Billing, Access, and Health Information Management as well as Budget, Financial Planning, and Reimbursement. He was a member of the team that helped form North East Medical Group and served as its first CFO.
Prior to joining Bridgeport Hospital, McCabe worked at New York Presbyterian Hospital as the Director of Financial Planning. He also worked at Deloitte & Touche as a management consultant.

McCabe resides in Shelton with his wife Kerry and is the proud father of four children and four grandchildren.
