Bristol Hospital Staff Celebrate Sleep Center Accreditation

BRISTOL, Conn.—Staff from Bristol Hospital recently celebrated the accreditation of the Bristol Hospital Sleep Center by the American Academy of Sleep Medicine.

The five-year accreditation welcomes the Bristol Hospital Sleep Center into the ranks of the AASM-accredited centers, which provide the highest quality of patient care. The AASM is committed to ensuring that those in the field of sleep medicine provide excellent health care and enhance the awareness of sleep as an important element for health, public safety and quality of life.

Since opening in 2011, the Bristol Hospital Sleep Center has served more than 700 patients. Shown at the celebration enjoying cake are (from left): Brimal B. Patel, MD, medical director of the Bristol Hospital Sleep Center; Marvin McMillen, MD, FACS, MACP, the hospital’s chairman of surgery, and Stephanie Adkins, RN, MSN, CCRN, operations manager of the intensive care unit, respiratory therapy, and the sleep center.
