Connecticut Hospital Association to Recognize Connecticut Valley Hospital's Jeffrey Rosow, DMD, as a 2012 Healthcare Hero

WALLINGFORD – At its 94th Annual Meeting on June 27, the Connecticut Hospital Association (CHA) will recognize Jeffrey Rosow, DMD, Dental Director, Connecticut Valley Hospital, as a 2012 Healthcare Hero. He was nominated for this award by his colleagues Kathy Langlais, RDH, Lois Villa, CDA, and Jamie Godwin, CDA.

Dr. Rosow is an inspiration to the staff and the patients at Connecticut Valley Hospital (CVH), where he has worked for 31 years. He is an advocate for patients in recovery, and is responsible for developing many exciting programs at CVH that continue to benefit patients, staff, and the Middletown community. Under Dr. Rosow's leadership, the Integrative Medicine Committee was established. Dr. Rosow also supported the dental staff in implementing a Dental Advocacy program that trains patients to become peer advocates.

CHA's Healthcare Heroes award was developed in 2002 to celebrate the invaluable contributions of healthcare workers, both to their field and to the community at large. Now in its 11th year, the presentation of the Healthcare Heroes awards has become a highlight of CHA's Annual Meeting.
